

Colonel Timothy S. Mundy, USMC

Colonel Timothy S. Mundy was commissioned upon graduation from Auburn University in June 1987. Upon completion of The Basic School and Infantry Officer's Course, he served as a rifle platoon commander, weapons platoon commander, and company executive officer in 3d Battalion, 3d Marines, 3d Marine Division, at Kaneohe Bay, Hawaii from 1988 to 1991. During his tour with the 3d Marines, he participated in Operations Desert Shield and Desert Storm. From 1991 to 1994, he was a company executive officer, company commander, and officer-in-charge of the Tactics Section in the Infantry Training Battalion, and the school's Chief Instructor at the School of Infantry, Camp Lejeune, North Carolina.

After attending career level school at Quantico, Virginia, he transferred to the 1st Marine Division and from 1995 to 1998 served as the Assistant Operations Officer, Weapons Company Commander, and Operations Officer in 3d Battalion, 1st Marines, and eventually also served as the Operations Officer of the 1st Marines.

Following attendance at intermediate level school at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, Colonel Mundy was assigned as a plans officer in the G-3 Future Operations section, III Marine Expeditionary Force, Okinawa, Japan from 2000 to 2002. Subsequently, he served as the Operations Officer of the 4th Marines, 3d Marine Division from 2002 to 2003, before leaving Okinawa to assume duties as the Head, Expeditionary Operations Division at the Expeditionary Warfare School, Quantico, Virginia from 2003 to 2004.

In June of 2004, Colonel Mundy assumed command of 3d Battalion, 2d Marines. From February until September 2005, he deployed 3/2 as a reinforced battalion task force into Al Anbar Province, Iraq, and had responsibility for the far western portion along the Syrian border. He relinquished command of 3/2 in January, 2006, and served as the Deputy G-3 and Current Operations Officer, 2d Marine Division until July 2006. Following attendance at top level school, Colonel Mundy was assigned in June 2007 to the J-5 Plans Division, United States Special Operations Command, Tampa, Florida, where he served as a Plans officer and later, Deputy Chief of Plans.

Colonel Mundy has been a student at the Amphibious Warfare School, the US Army's Command and General Staff College, School of Advanced Military Studies, and the Joint Advanced Warfighting School. He holds a Master of Military Arts and Science degree, Master of Science in Joint Campaign Planning and Strategy, and a Master of Arts in Human Resources Development.
